OFFICE, D. JONES' BREWERY.—THE STATEMENTS

IN some of the morning newspapers respecting the fire on my premises last evening are calculated to convey the impression that the amount of damage was equal to a temporary and total loss of the entire building.

It affords me the greatest satisfaction to be able to inform my friends and customers that no delay will occur in either rebuilding or that business will be continued as usual.

CHRISTMAS, 1869.

At the Great Wholesale Store,

now selling at retail.

601 Broadway.

St. Nicholas Hotel Block.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25.

I shall offer a full assortment of Irish Poplins of the calbrated manufacture of Pine Bros. & Co., Dublin, at $2 15 per yard. The same article is now selling in this market at $2 75.

Also,

a small lot of the same class of goods, which, on account of the cost of carriage and manufacturing, will sell at $2 25 per yard. They are ready for service and in appearance, when made up, as the perfect goods.

Also,

a full line of English and French Dress Goods, consisting of Poplins, plain and plaid; Serge, Emperors Cloths, Volantes, etc.

These goods come out by late steamers, and were purchased at a great reduction from former prices on account of the present low rates of exchange.

Therefore I can offer to the consumer a saving on purchases of from $2 25 per yard cost, as compared with regular retail prices.

Also,

a great variety of German and Fancy Goods, especially adapted to the holiday season, which, added to my previous assortment, makes, without exception, the best collection of articles designed for the holiday trade to be found in any one house in this country.

In order to make room for my vast assortment of Holiday Goods, I have compelled to add to my already spacious premises another addition 200 feet by 80.
